ENTRANCE

The problem of educating the young generation of new Uzbekistan in the spirit of patriotism is one of the urgent issues on the path to the development of our country. Today, not only geographically, geopolitical in terms of, maybe our society of life all on the fronts happened happening global changes attitude with this problem separately importance profession is doing. So So, let's try to define the problem with questions: What are the goals of modern patriotic education? What topics are covered within the framework of patriotic education? How often are patriotic education lessons organized?

The modern geopolitical, social, economic, interethnic situation in Uzbekistan has changed the problem of educating young people in the spirit of patriotism. The main reason for this situation, unfortunately, is the high activity of collective forms of recreation, which attract young people not with the idea of the general well-being of the country or the content of personal growth, but with convenience, "democratism", freedom of speech and movement.

This problem The relevance of this is due to the need of society for patriotic education of young people, which is of particular importance for several reasons:

- of the younger generation awareness level (often negative) increasing is going;
- additional accordingly big income causing social on the networks content for "democratization" processes and "free" actions in order to collect all sorts of noise, jokes and likes manifestation to be. Of these all, own in turn, young generation by word, freedom of movement manifestation of being the essence and as a result patriotism of feeling himself causes certain difficulties in understanding;

- Modern youth have not gone through the specific situations, schools, or patriotic education movements that older generations are familiar with.

THE ISSUE METHODOLOGY AND DISCUSSION

Education in the process national consciousness, dignity, oneself respect to do The foundation of folk wisdom, national ideas and ideals should occupy an important place. Patriotism beliefs own to the truth sincere belief with harmonized knowledge own includes .

Scientists understand patriotic education as "the formation of a mature, developed, highly educated, socially active and nationally conscious individual, with deep civic responsibility, healthy intellectual, creative and spiritual qualities, feelings of kinship and patriotism, hardworking, economically intelligent, initiative and industriousness".

The need to form patriotic beliefs in children was emphasized by the great teacher and thinker Ya.A. Komensky, who said that "they could defend everything they considered true and good ... honestly".

Emotions and from beliefs except, activity need – this patriotism upbringing important aspect. Patriotic activities include:

-people with deep connection, his/her for general purposes in their work participation to, concern for his well-being;

-preservation and improvement of the culture, traditions, customs, and rituals of the native land; adherence to moral norms and rules developed by the people, as well as state laws;

-own homeland symbols about to knowledge to have ; to have;

-own of the people strengthening statehood ;

-activities aimed at strengthening belonging to one's own state and readiness to defend it;

-own family, people history to know, himself/herself grown up location dependency;

-own tasks conscientiously to perform, creative work ability.

Today, educational institutions are responsible for educating the youth of New Uzbekistan in the spirit of patriotism. educational your work main to the element rotation necessary. Now national values Let's try to consider several issues related to patriotic education on the basis of. What are the goals, forms and methods of organizing patriotic education of preschool children, schoolchildren and students of vocational colleges, as well as higher education institutions?

The content of the concept of patriotism in the Union reflects the basic concepts of "Homeland" and "Homeland". These same concepts are associated, on the one hand, with a person's attachment to his native land, and on the other hand, with a number of socio-economic, political, cultural and other characteristics of each society.

Modern under the circumstances patriotism main principles:

- patriotism personal importance integration with society ;
- national to values based patriotism upbringing not only to the future, maybe to direct even today;
- national identity to understand internationalism, tolerance with develop together ;
- Understanding the importance of basic concepts such as "Homeland", "Motherland", and "People", which determine the inclusion of patriotism itself in the category of socio-spiritual values.

Patriotism is a social and spiritual value of every nation, as well as an integral part of the social and moral formation of the individual, which can be considered as follows:

- cognitive degree (moral or political principle);
- emotional degree (moral feeling);
- behavior level (integrative ethics quality).

In determining the sense of patriotism, it is of particular importance to strengthen the connection between the personal significance of patriotism and the socially significant patriotism. has. To the homeland love supreme spiritual and moral feeling as society person, that is, it determines the needs of the patriot for his own needs.

Patriotic - this own Homeland loving, own To his homeland, to the people loyal, own labor He is a person who seeks to benefit from.

Patriotism feeling every one human own mother to his house, To the homeland, different in other words, expresses a purely personal attitude. Love for the homeland is the object of a value relationship, that is, patriotism is a "subjective" value as well as an "objective" one. As an objective value, patriotism is considered as a phenomenon of goodness, truth, and justice in its essence. As a subjective value, it expresses normative ideas that are entrenched in the public consciousness and culture.

The transformation of national, national and social values into personal values is carried out on the basis of the active activity of the individual. These forms of activity are manifested in various spheres of human life. Of particular importance is the educational and labor activity of each citizen of the country, during which social experience is exchanged and this system of society is mastered.

Patriotic education is a process of interaction between educators and pupils, teachers and students, aimed at the formation and improvement of a sense of patriotism, patriotic beliefs and stable norms of patriotic behavior .

Patriotism all appearances to oneself typical necessary, useful to be is aspiration. Patriotism, like collectivism, includes the unity and diversity of personal and social goals, cooperation and interaction of people. Consequently, the individual's attention not only to his own "I", but also to other people is manifested in the desire to interact, to benefit. Consequently, this is manifested in the understanding and fulfillment of a person's patriotic duty to his Motherland, to his people.

In modern conditions, the concept of patriotism, in its essence, is the unity of the public and personal interests of a person, a citizen, which is unconditionally immutable and irreplaceable.

CONCLUSION

Children in the spirit of patriotism of upbringing main directions of the following consists of:

- family - family, seed and generation about idea generation;
- social life events with acquaintance; state history, state symbols about knowledge formation;
- own of the people traditions and culture with acquaintance;
- motherland about knowledge formation.

The preschool age, when a child's interest in the social world and social phenomena is particularly active, is a favorable time to begin systematic patriotic education.

But it is not enough to consider patriotism solely as a socio-historical phenomenon, arising from the specific socio-political and economic characteristics of a particular society. Youth between known above the level from factors independent formed and human spiritual of life known layers descriptive patriotism "natural" It is undeniable that there are fundamentals: love for one's homeland, respect for one's language, one's people, traditions and customs, etc.

Naturally, this cannot be determined by the innate characteristics of the psyche, but it is also impossible not to take this factor into account when describing patriotism. "A sense of patriotism," emphasizes N. Moiseyuk, "is easier to awaken if you draw the student's attention to the real changes taking place in his family, in his native village, in his city. Therefore, educators lead the student to action only by sharpening his feelings and relying on them." As a result of the activity, behavioral skills and habits are formed, which become the norm in the process of repetition. The system of actions, actions gradually become a character to the feature becomes, the person becomes the property of. Thus patriotic beliefs are formed..
