Language is a mirror of human thought, spiritual world and feelings. In fiction, especially poetry, the subtle and appropriate use of language tools determines the effectiveness of the work. In this regard, synonyms play a special role. They not only enrich the thought, but also serve to express feelings more effectively. This article analyzes the emotional-expressive capabilities of synonyms and how the poet expresses his artistic goal through them.

Synonyms meaning in terms of Although similar, they differ in their stylistic load and emotional tone in context. Such expressive differences directly affect the rhythm, rhyme, tone, and imagery in poetry. Words with stylistic coloring can be used to express emotions in speech, the speaker's negative attitude towards reality or positive attitude expression for the purpose used. H. Jamolkhonov. Synonyms participated context It expresses different colors depending on the content and style. Synonyms play an important role in poetry. It should be noted that they help prevent stylistic errors in the poet's pen. They ensure the rhyme, harmony of the poem, and the way in which the thought is expressed in the emotion.

Uzbek literature notable from the manifestations Let's stop at the tragedy "Mirzo Ulugbek" by Maqsd Shaikhzoda:

The magic of enlightenment is such love,
When I tried to blow it out, it didn't go away, it just got worse.
Like a burning bonfire,
I've been obsessed with stars since I was a baby.

For example, in the tragedy "Mirzo Ulugbek " by Maqsud Shaikhzoda: ignited to the bonfire The word " yalqinlanib " in the verse "o'qshar" is similar. his/her own strong, bright fire It is used in the sense of "shining" and "flaming" and its synonyms, such as "shining" and "flaming", have a special meaning of subtlety or brilliance. However, their usage your sister artistic strength weakens. From the tragedy "Mirzo Ulugbek " by Maqsud Shaikhzoda next byte analysis:

Hey, mankind, an example take it you from the stars,
From the qualities of kindness and elevation.
Don't be discouraged by the ups and downs, rise up, rise up,
Blind from happiness see eyed misfortune preferably.
blind happiness see eyed misfortune preferably.

"blind" means " eye" "blind " or "blind" are replaced with synonyms, rhyme, rhythm, even of the content artistic power decreases. Also in the poem " Mukimiy ": The old of the madrasa lonely Although the word " lonely " in the line "hujrasi... " has synonyms such as " lonely ", "only", it is the word "lonely" that expresses the poet's spiritual situation, loneliness and sadness stronger represents. The following in the table some synonyms differences shown:

Original Word	Synonym	The difference	Style feature
